Bio/Goals

I am very interested being in a diverse, critical and creative work environment. I want my social and creative personality to have greater contribution. I am challenged in creating opportunities for those who are not aware of it. I believe in the power of communication, caring, learning, and inspire through knowledge; they are small actions that have a big impact and help us grow. I want a challenging career with social impact, not limited by my current capabilities. I am a person who never stop to learn. Stay foolish, stay hungry.
